Program Overview

The Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (<https://www.kettering.edu/programs-and-degrees/business>) (BSBA) degree is focused on creating dynamic leaders capable of taking an idea or process and either bringing the idea to the market or improving the efficiency and effectiveness of a process.

There are three key aspects to achieving this:

- Preparing students to work with concept originators/technical colleagues and perform business analyses related to ideas and processes.
- Leveraging the co-op experience in preparing students to facilitate the idea development process and perform basic analyses.
- Allowing students the opportunity to hone and practice their skills and knowledge in business studio (laboratory) experiences.

The BSBA offers the opportunity to study abroad (<https://my.kettering.edu/international-programs/study-abroad-kettering-university>). Business students wishing to study abroad have the opportunity to attend classes held in English at Reutlingen University in Reutlingen, Germany. The program is one term in length, normally the Senior 1 (SR1) term, and takes place during the fall term. Students interested in studying abroad need to make their decision no later than the Junior 1 (JR1) term and discuss their intentions with their academic advisor. Additional information is available from the Department of Business and the Kettering University Office of International Programs (<https://my.kettering.edu/international-programs>).

The Department of Business also offers two minors available to students not majoring in Business. These minors are: Business (<http://catalog.kettering.edu/undergrad/academic-programs/minors/business>), and Innovation and Entrepreneurship (<http://catalog.kettering.edu/undergrad/academic-programs/minors/innovation-entrepreneurship>).

The Business Minor provides students not majoring in Business with a strong base in the functional areas of business and one elective course. It also fulfills prerequisites for the Master of Business Administration (<http://catalog.kettering.edu/grad/programs/business-administration>) (MBA), Master of Science in Engineering Management (<http://catalog.kettering.edu/grad-online/programs/engineering-management>), and Master of Science in Operations Management (<http://catalog.kettering.edu/grad-online/programs/operations-management>) programs offered at Kettering University. In many cases courses in the business minor will serve prerequisites needs for MBA programs at other institutions.

The Innovation and Entrepreneurship minor is designed for students interested in starting their own business or leading the creation of new ideas in an existing business.

The BSBA program is accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (<http://www.acbsp.org/mpage/main>) (ACBSP). The BSBA prepares students to become dynamic leaders by coupling traditional business subjects with the ability to interact with technical colleagues and having the soft skills that enable them to lead projects and programs. The BSBA program provides the strong analytical base needed to analyze managerial, operations, and marketing data.
